Touring across Buckinghamshire, professional performances on your doorstep

TRULY YOURS, CB ALISON NEIL

Charlotte was wildly ambitious. Whilst abiding by all the restrictions of early Victorian life, she managed to become a hugely famous novelist, with the instant success of "Jane Eyre". Devoted to her brother and sisters, their lives and her own loves and friendships provides a riveting story.

Award-winning writer/performer Alison Neil tells the story of Charlotte Brontë and her unworldly family - a tale of passion and duty, triumph and tragedy, and above all - love.

FLANDERS & SWANN REVISITED MICHAEL LUNTS

Flanders and Swann meet John Betjeman in this delightful and witty musical evening bringing together two great exponents of British humour whose work remains as funny and perceptive today as it did in the Fifties and Sixties.

Actor, singer and pianist Michael Lunts offers a new perspective on songs such as 'Have Some Madeira M'Dear' and 'A Transport of Delight' (not to mention all those animals!) by setting them alongside some of Betjeman's equally hilarious comic verse for a 'laugh out loud' trip down memory lane.

BLAST FROM THE PAST SPILTMILK DANCE

Jam-packed with hits, Blast from the Past is a fast-paced race through seven decades of the blockbusters and bestsellers we all remember, and the fads and fashions we might prefer to forget. Set to a soundtrack of chart toppers from 1952 to the present day, the show honours British pop culture and its ability to unite us all in weird and wonderful ways.

Somewhere between a dance performance, sketch show, TV gameshow and the ultimate compilation album, Blast from the Past will have you feeling nostalgic, singing along, and laughing out loud.

Suitable adults and 8 yrs +

VICTOR & ALBERT TALK ABOUT LOVE VICTOR & ALBERT

An evening of comedy, music, interaction and a little sprinkling of magic. Think of Morecambe and Wise (with a piano) dragged kicking and screaming into the 21st Century and you will get a good idea of the evening you are in for.

In this new show the Twin Brothers explore the enormous topic of romantic love through comedy, song and music and some audience participation. Suitable 14 yrs +

THE IAN ENGLISH BOODLUM BAND

The Boodlums present their mad mix of wacky comedy and offbeat songs in an irreverent 'take' on popular music. The band's songs crash through many different musical genres, including songs from the Thirties, ABBA, Rice & Webber, The Eagles, Al Bowlly.... which other band would have Good Vibrations, Tiptoe through the Tulips and My Generation all on the same playlist? None if they've got any sense! With a show crammed full of comedy, music, parody and wit, and played on an unusual mix of instruments, you can be sure by the time they've finished you won't be left wanting more!
